Firing Cannon Under Water.

Last year it was reported that an engineer of Boston had perfected a contrivance by which a gun of any size could be fired under water in such a manner that the shot from it should take effect also under water. We have heard nothing recently of this discovery or contrivance, but we find, from a report made lately of some experiments conducted last year in England by the officers of the British gunnery ship Excellent, that there a full trial has been made, and it is now certain that submerged cannon can be effectively fired. The interesting experiments are thus described:

"A stage was erected in the harbor within the tide mark; on this an Armstrong 110-pounder was mounted, loaded and aimed, at low water, at a target placed also within the rise of the tide.—When both gun and target were covered by the water to a debt of six feet the gun was fired by means of a tube. The targets were placed at from twenty to twenty-five feet from the middle of the gun. One was composed of piles and oak planking, of a thickness of twenty-one inches; another consisted in the hull of an old vessel, the Gripper, laid on a mud bank; a third was made up of three inches in thickness of iron-boiler plates, bolted together and backed with timber. On all these the effect of shot and shell from the submerged gun was very startling. The wooden target was pierced through and through, the iron target was broken into pieces and driven into the backing, the solid shot passed right through both sides of the vessel, making a huge hole through which the water poured in torrents; a shell with percussion fuse burst in entering, opening up a chasm of five feet by three in the planking, shattering the ribs and bursting up the deck beams above."

Our Ordnance Bureau ought to look to this matter. If it is practicable to load and fire cannon under water, then the defence of harbors will receive a new help; and ironclads, no matter how heavily they are armored above water, will be as weak and defenseless against such a submerged battery as the merest shell of a wooden frigate. It is impossible to arm a floating vessel against such a submerged battery as the merest shell of a wooded frigate. It is impossible to arm a floating vessel against such an assault—Huge as the British Warrior and French Glorie are, they can barely support the iron plating which defend their upper works—their hulls below the water line are no more impervious to shot than any wooden ship's. Suppose now that we had a battery of submerged cannon so arranged in this harbor that they could not be loaded, aimed and fired at will, no ironclad would dare encounter such a foe. Harbor defense would be complete. —N. Y Eve. Post, Dec. 28th.

AT the Ladies' Fair recently held in Columbus, Ohio, a pretty Indian girl was observed exerting her persuasive powers to their utmost tension, trying to induce a certain military gent, who ranks as a captain, to buy a bead basket, or some other ornament she had in her possession. As the gallant captain had been gouged an unlimited number of times during the evening, he didn't see it; but, thinking to startle the maiden, said, jokingly—"Don't want to buy your trinkets, but I'll give you five dollars for a kiss." The maiden reflected a moment. She was laboring in a noble cause, for the soldiers' good: "Surely, in such a case there's no harm;" so, in a twinkling of the eye, she said, "Done, sir!" and, as expressed, she gave him a whopper, right on the cheek. Military drew back, abashed.—The crowd saw it and laughed. There was but one way of escape; he pulled out his somewhat depleted wallet and forked over a "V." He then rushed frantically up stairs, and drowned his sorrow in a flowing bowl of oyster soup. The maiden, in the meantime, maintained her accustomed tranquility, and yet survives, a fitting monument to woman's patriotic spirit.

BULLY FOR "SNYDER."—Not a thousand miles from the capital of Plumas resides a female, who is an old time "abolitionist." Recently a contraband rode up to the door of the "hotel" where she stopped and inquired if he could have food and shelter for the night; of course he could. When supper was about ready, the madam informed Sambo that she "was in fact an abolitionist of the Lloyd Garrison school." Then says the contraband, "This chile hunts some other tavern, for I'se a Southern gemman." He went out, saddled his pony and rode off, without bidding his hostess good-bye.—Quincy Union.

THE star of fashion in Chicago is a Canadian half-breed. She is said to be surpassingly beautiful, and is the petted and idolized wife of a rich man, who took her when a little child from her mother's lodge, had her educated in a convent, and for a time set all Chicago wild with his lovely foreign bride.

THE MARCHING OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC SINCE JUNE LAST.—Annexed will be found a semi-official statement of the number of miles marched by the army of the Patomac since June last, by which it will be seen that nearly 500 miles have been marched over, occupying 38 days, averaging about 13 miles per day. The longest march made was 32 miles, between Fairfax Court House, Va., and Poolesville, Md., June 26, when Lee was crossing into Maryland. The distance made and the names of places indicate the movements of General headquarters. By this list it will be seen this army has not been idle during the last six months.

June 14, left Falmouth and marched to Dumfries, 26 miles; June 15, marched to Fairfax Station, 26 miles; June 18, marched to Fairfax Court House, 4 miles; June 26, marched to Poolsville, Maryland, 32 miles; June 27, marched to Frederick, 21 miles; June 29, marched to Middleburgh, 21 miles; June 30, marched to Tarrytown, 5 miles; July 2, marched to Westminister, 12 miles; July 4, to Gettysburg, 25 miles; July 7, marched to Woodsboro', 24 miles; July 8, to Middleton, 19 miles; July 9, to South Mountain, 5 miles; July 15, to Berlin, 16 miles; July 18, marched to Lovettsville, Va., 3 miles, July 19, to near Wheatland, 7 miles; July 20, to Union, 15 miles; July 22, to Upperville, 7 miles; July 23, to Markham Church, 14 miles; July 24, to Salem, 11 miles; July 25, to Warrenton, 14 miles; Aug. 1, marched to Germantown, 8 miles; Sept. 16 marched to Culpepper, 20 miles; Oct. 11 to Bowen's farm, north of the Rappahannock, 14 miles; Oct. 13, to Catlett's Station, 13 miles; Oct. 14, to Centreville, 20 miles; Oct. 19, to Groveton, 7 miles; Oct. 20, to Gainesville, 4 miles; Oct. 21, to Warrenton, 12 miles; Oct. 27, marched to Auburn, 6 miles; Oct. 30, marched to Three-mile Station, (on the Warrenton Branch Railroad) 3 miles; Nov. 7, marched to Carter's farm, 13 miles; Nov. 8, marched to Bowen's farm, 8 miles; Nov. 9, marched 6 miles east of Bealton's Station; Nov. 27, marched to Germania Ford, 14 miles; Nov. 28, marched to near Robertson's tavern, or Devil's Fork Camp, 7 miles; Nov. 29, marched to near Mine Run, 2 miles; Dec. 1, marched to Germania, 10 miles; Dec. 2, marched to Brandy Station, 14 miles. Total number of miles marched, 487; number of days, 38.

AT Pilau, in Prussia, now lives a woman who has for some years consecrated her life to the noble but dangerous task of rescuing persons from drowning.—Whenever a tempest comes on, day or night, Catharine Kleinfeldt, who is the widow of a sailor, is ready with a boat, in which she puts out to sea, and frequently goes further than any other, in order to give help to those who may be shipwrecked. More than three hundred individuals have been saved from death by her efforts, and, accustomed for twenty years to make voyages with her husband, she possesses a skill and hardihood that render these efforts unusually successful. Whenever she is seen the greatest respect is paid to her, and the sailors regard her as their guardian angel; the very children of the fishermen go upon their knees to her and kiss the skirts of her dress. The Prussian and other governments have decreed medals to her, and the Principality of Pilau have made her an honorary citizen for life. She is about sixty years of age, with an athletic figure and great strength (a Grace Darling enlarged into gigantic proportions;) she has a masculine countenance, which, however, is softened by the benevolent expression that it commonly wears.

YOSEMITE.—Fitz Hugh Ludlow writes as follows to the New York Evening Post of the marvelous scenery of this celebrated valley:

"Since I wrote you I have lain awe-struck for six weeks between the two grandest leaves of the Almighty's album—those perpendicular white granite precipices which contain the wondrous Yosemite Valley. That I may not seem too self-assured, nor ask you too peremptorily to lean with me to mine own understanding, let me quote Bierstadt, who, after years spent in making Alpine color studies, asserts that no where in Switzerland, nor indeed throughot Europe, is there scenery whose grandeur for one moment can be held comparable with that of the Sierra Nevada in the Yosemite district. As we lay camped under the South (or Half) Dome—a sheer unbroken granite wall, one purpendicular mile in height, we heard from some English tourists who had spent months among the Himalayas, that neither they, Hindoo Koosh, Dwahalaghiri, nor Mount Everest, exhibit any such feature of rugged and abrupt sublimity as the peaks and precipices of the Yosemite."

AN old batchelor's definition of love: "A little sighing, a little dying, and a good deal of lying."

"DIED YESTERDAY."—Every day is written this little sentence—"Died yesterday," so and so. Every day a flower is plucked from a sunny home, a breach is made in some happy circle, a jewel stolen from some treasury of love. Each day, from the summer fields of life some harvester disappears; yea, every hour some sentinel falls from his post and is thrown from the ramparts of time into the surging waters of eternity. Even as we write, the funeral of one who died yesterday winds like a funeral shadow along the street. "Died yesterday." Who died? Perhaps it was a gentle babe—one whose laugh was as the gush of a summer rill loitering through a bower of roses, whose life was a perpetual litany—a May-time, crowned with the passion-flowers that never fade. Or, mayhap it was a youth, hopeful and generous, whose path was hemmed with flowers, with not a serpent lurking underneath—one whose soul panted for communion with the great and good, and reached forth in an earnest struggle for he guerdon in the distance. But that heart is still now; he "died yesterday." "Died yesterday."—A young girl, pure as the orange-flowers that clasped her forehead, was stricken down as she stood at the altar; and from the dim isle of the temple she was borne to the "garden of the slumberers." A crowned man, girt with the hollow pomp of victory, and at day's close sitting under his own vine and fig tree, fell to dust even as the anthem trembled on his lips; and he, too, was laid "where the rude forefathers of the hamlet sleep." An ancient patriarch, bowed with age and cares, even as looking out upon the distant hills for the coming of the angel host, sank into a dreamless slumber, and on his door-post is written, "Died yesterday. "Died yesterday." Daily are men, women and children passing away, and hourly in some graveyard the soil is flung upon the dead. As often in the morn we find some flower that blushed sweetly in the sunset was withered up forever, so daily, when we rise from the bivouac to stand against our posts, we miss some brother soldier, whose cherry cry in the sieges and struggles of the past has been a fire from heaven upon our hearts. Each day some pearl drops from the jeweled threads of friendship—some lyre to which we have been wont to listen has been hushed forever. But wise he is who mourns not the pearl nor the music lost; for life with him shall pass away gentle as an eastern shadow from the hills, and death be a triumph and a gain.

SKATING IN NEW YORK.—Last Friday (Christmas) we had glorious skating. The day was lovely—neither cold nor warm. The sky was clear. That afternoon I went up to the Central Park; but such was the rush of the multitude in that direction I found it impossible to make room for myself in any car upon any route. I went, therefore, by a well-known conveyance—Mr. Shank's famous female horse! When I got to the Park what a spectacle the Lake presented?—The ice was good and thick. The spot was inviting, and I do believe that a hundred thousand people, of all ages and both sexes, covered the immense area of the frozen lake surface. Phew! at a little distance the mass resembled a vast ant hill, with the black looking creatures crowded together and moving hither and thither in tireless motion. I never before saw such a throng. Very little skating was possible, because the human multitude was too well packed together to admit of it; but girls and their beaux, men and their sweethearts, husbands, wives, children, all walked about on the ice, looking at each other as they promenaded, and finding a new pleasure in walking under instead of upon the fancy bridges so numerously scattered over the waters of this our Champs Elysees. That night the moon was up in supurb style, and the Park was filled with people until after midnight. Never was there a gayer or a more joyous time. Alas! that was the last of it. The next day it rained; it rained for two days afterwards. It rains now as I pen this paragraph. The skating, therefore, is "done up." The fun is over. Luckily the rain does not interfere much with our New Year's festivities, so we endure it philosophically.—N. Y. Cor. of Call.

KNOWS HOW.—There is said to be a considerable "knack" in keeping a hotel, and not every one has it. Mr. Stetson, of the Astor House, New York, seems to know how to do it. Recently he sent to the Board of Councilmen a bill of $7,750 for a banquet given the Russian officers, and another bill of $36,290 for entertaining returned volunteers. But we guess Stetson earned his money.

A DEAF man, named Taff, says an exchange, was run over by a passenger train on Wednesday morning last, and killed. The same thing happened to him a year ago. We wonder if it hurt him much this time.

THE MASON'S GRAVE.—In all ages the bodies of the Masonic dead have been laid in graves dug due east and west, with their faces toward the east. This practice has been borrowed from us, and adopted by others, until it has become nearly universal. It implies that when the Great Day shall come, and He who is Death's conquorer, shall give the signal, His ineffable light shall first be seen in the east; that from the east He will make His glorious approach; will stand at the eastern margin of these graves, and with His mighty power—that grasp irresistibly strong which shall prevail, will raise the bodies which are slumbering therein.

We shall have been long buried, long decayed Friends, relatives, yea, our nearest and dearest, will cease to remember where they have laid us. The broad earth will have undergone wondrous changes, mountains levelled, valleys filled. The seasons will have chased each other in many a fruitless round Oceans lashed into fury by the gales of to day, will to-morrow have sunk like a spoiled child to their slumber. Broad trees, with broader roots, will have interlocked them hard and knobbed, as they are, above our ashes, as if to conceal the very fact of our having lived; and then, after centuries of life, they too will have followed our example of mortality, and long struggling with decay, at last will have toppled down to join their remains with ours, thus obliterating the last poor testimony that man has ever lain here. So shall we be lost to human sight. But the eye of God, nevertheless, will mark the spot, green with the everlasting verdure of faith, and when the trumpet's blast shall shake the hills to their very bases, our astonished bodies will rise, impelled upward by an irrisistible impulse, and we shall stand face to face with our Creator!—Freemason's Almanac.

THE INDIAN HEAVEN AND HELL.—The deceased Indian has, according to them, a long journey to make toward the west until he comes to a deep and rushing river, which separates him from the happy hunting ground. The two shores of that land are connected by a long pine trunk, stripped of bark and polished, which must be used as a bridge. The good man passes with a firm and secure step across the slippery bridge, reaches the happy hunting ground, and enters on the possession of eternal youth and strength. His sky is always clear, and a cool breeze is perpetually playing about him, and he passes his time in sailing, hunting, dancing, and boundless felicity. The bad man, when he steps upon the bridge, sees the two overhanging shores totter; he attempts to escape, and falls into the abyss below, where the water is rushing with the sound of thunder over rocks; where the air is poisoned by the exhalations from dead fish and other animal bodies, and the water, whirling round and round, brings him always back to the same point; where all the trees are whithered; where the dead are hungry and have nothing to eat; where the living lead a diseased life and cannot die. The shores are covered with the thousands of unhappy beings, who climb up to get a glance into the happy hunting ground, which they can never enter.

A NEW RENDERING OF HAMLET.—Hon. John Cochrane got off the following in a speech at Brooklyn, recently: Upon yonder lines, at Windsor, pass Vallandigham and his friend Horatio—I see the friend of Horatio grasping his cloak about him to screen him from the northern blast, and I also beheld Marcellus Wood. It is the peace platform on the Canadian line. They tread the stage and remind me of that scene conceived in the mind of nature's poet, composed undoubtedly with reference to the events now transpiring. It was the melancholy Hamlet—Vallandigham—his friend Horatio, and the officer Marcellus Wood, that occupid, upon a dreary night, a brief hour upon the peace platform at Elsinore.—

Hamlet (Vallandigham).—The air bites shrewdly; it is very cold.

Horatio.—It is, indeed, an unhappy, and an eager air.

Hamlet.—What hour now?

Horatio.—Methinks it lacks of 12.

Marcellus Wood.—No, it has struck.

Horatio.—Indeed! I heard it not.

Heard it not, Horatio! Heard you not Rhode Island, one; two, Vermont; three Massachusetts, four; New Hampshire, five; Maine, six; California, seven; Wisconsin, eight; Illinois, nine; Pennsylvania, ten; Ohio, eleven; Maryland and New York, twelve. And there struck the last syllable of recorded time. If, Horatio, your auracular nerve was dead to that, it must be the dull, cold ear of death with which you are struck. The dead heard it, looked up, and wondered at the miracle. The living heard it an rejoiced, and as our army stood shoulder to shoulder in the front, the the people were standing shoulder to shoulder in the rear.

OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER.

SATURDAY, FEB. 20TH, 1864.

YOLO county has seven convicts in the State prison.

THE cars on Sunday made their first trip from the city depot, San Francisco, to San Jose.

D. W. SMITH was arrested in San Francisco on Thursday, on a charge of murder committed in Marin county.

AN engineer on the racine and Mississippi railroad was smothered by plunging his locomotive into a snow bank.

THERE are 8,000 teams connected with the Army of the Potomac. If placed in a single line they would extend over 60 miles.

THE masts of a new French ironclad, lately launched near Toulon, are of a single piece each. The timber was obtained in California.

DANCING SCHOOL.—The half term will end this evening, when those who design continuing the full term or joining the class, are requested to "sign the papers."

THE man arrested in Idaho, supposed to be William Wells, the murderer of Wetzel, at Sacramento, in July, 1860, proves to be another man, named Wills.

ON Tuesday, Ridgeley Greathouse, the Chapman pirate, went before Judge Hoffman, of the United States District Court, took the oath of allegiance, and was released.

DON'T forget the inimitable Taylor Family. Their entertainment will precede the ball, on Monday night. They will be assisted by Mr. Littlewood and Little Solidad.

BULLION.—During the week ending 14th inst, Wells, Fargo & Co. shipped from Virginia City 6,950 pounds—over three tuns—of bullion, valued at $189,094 75.

OUR friend A. H. Morehead is with us again, having just returned from the Reese River country. Alkili, sage brush, etc. agreed with him. He must have had the experience of some "intelligent cuss" to guide him.

THE war risk on merchandise in American bottoms between San Francisco and China is only two per cent., a fact that shows the insurance men have no fears of the rebel fleet reported to be in Chinese waters.

COTTON AND TOBACCO.—The Visalia Delta advises the farmers of Tulare Valley to cultivate cotton and tobacco. It estimates that an acre of tobacco will yield $300, and an acre of cotton $280 net profit.

A DISTILLING COMPANY.—The Pacific Distillery Company filed its certificate of incorporation on Saturday. Its object "is to carry on and conduct the business of manufacturing and distilling liquors" in San Francisco. Capital stock, $150,000, in 30 shares of $5,000.

HELD FOR TRIAL.—The case of James Peake, charged with poisoning or "hocussing" the fast trotting horse "George" with croton oil on the 3d inst., at the White House stables, Mission Dolores, was up before Judge Shepheard, in the Police Court on Saturday afternoon. The evidence taken resulted in the holding of the accused for trial in the County Court.

MONDAY, the 22d of February, will be the anniversary of Washington's birthday. We have not heard of any preparations being made to celebrate the day—don't think the military will parade—but do know that in the evening there will be a grand Ball and Supper at the Union Hotel, and all should be on hand to take a part—if not in the ball, then in the supper.

FOR THE DRAFT.—There are 1597 persons enrolled in the 1st District of Solano county—1317 of whom are subject to the first draft. In the 3d District there are 978 enrolled, 780 being subject to the first draft. From the 2d District there are no returns, but it is believed that the county will have about 3,400 enrolled—or 2,800 in the "first class."

WE call attention to the advertisement of C. H. Krebs, No. 188 J st. Sac., who has just received a new stock of Paperhangings, Lamps, etc., which he offers cheaper than can be had anywhere else in the city. He is also prepared to do House and Sign Painting, Glazing, Gilding, Graining, and Varnishing.

The Judiciary and the "Loyal" Press.

The Judiciary on the Pacific coast seem to have gotten into bad odor with the loyal press of California. Last week they were alarmed on account of the Supreme Court decision in regard to soldiers voting out of the State, and now Judge Hoffman, of the United States Court, comes in for a share of loyal censure on account of his decision in the habeas corpus case of Greathouse, by which the latter individual is released from confinement and also from the payment of the fine assessed by the Court upon his conviction of treason. Those legal gentlemen of the editorial fraternity cannot see how the courts can disfranchise several thousand soldiers, fighting for their country, and enfranchise one who was about to engage in war against it. We believe none of them pretend to gainsay the soundness, constitutionally speaking, of the Supreme Court in its decision of the soldier's vote; but Judge Hoffman's decision we have not examined, and have no opinion to offer. He decides Greathouse entitled to his liberty by virtue of the President's amnasty proclamation. As to whether Greathouse will or will not abide by the oath he takes is a question, we presume, Judge Hoffman did not consider properly before him, and most likely for want of jurisdiction would not consider it.

IN last week's Salano Press we see that two distinguished Baptist ministers of this State have lent the weight of their names to some malicious fellow to distroy the usefulness of another minister of the same faith and order, who, perhaps, has less renown as a preacher, but who is certainly their equal in piety and zeal for the cause both profess to love and labor for. The reverend gentleman assailed need have no fears that his christian reputation will suffer any where he is so well known as he is here from these attacks, come they from whatever source they may. Verily, Satan must be much gratified with the prospective results of these dissensions in the Church.

IN reply to the inquiry whether it is necessary to take out a Broker's License to loan money, the following has been received:

OFFICE OF THE ASSESSOR OF INTERNAL REVENUE, 5TH DIST., Santa Rosa, Feb. 10, 1854: SIR—Your statement with reference to your liability to take a Broker's License was duly received. In reply I have to say: that if you only loan your own money, as appears by your affidavit, you are not liable, under Art. 13, Sec. 64, Excise Tax.

Very Respectfully,
W. A. ELIASON,
U. S. Assessor, 5th Dist.

E. M. HIATT, Esq., K. Landing, Yolo co.

COMMON SCHOOLS.—The Bill introduced from the Committee on Education by Mr. Owen finally passed the Assembly to-day. It provides for levying a special tax of five cents on the one hundred dollars for Common School purposes. It is estimated that this tax will add some $75,000 to the State School Fund. No district is to have the benefit of this fund unless it shall levy and collect a tax equal to $2 per head for each school child in the district. The sum of $8,000 per annum is to be appropriated to the State Normal School, and the balance to be distributed pro rata among the districts that raise the tax above mentioned.

LAUNCH OF AN OPPOSITION STEAMBOAT.—A large number of people were present at North Point on Saturday afternoon, says the Bulletin of Feb. 15th, at the launching of the new sternwheel steamer Annie Stewart. The launch took place at 5 o'clock, the boat gliding gracefully into the water with steam up and a large number of persons on board; after which she ran along the city front to Pacific wharf and landed her passengers.—The Annie Stewart will be commanded by DeWitt Hulse, and will, in a few days, run as an opposition boat on the Sacramenta route, when lively times among the steamboat runners may be expected.

WENDELL PHILIPS is "not certain that slavery is dead until he sees it buried." The New Haven Register says if he will go to the "Freedmen's camps along the Mississippi he will see it buried at the rate of several hundred per day."

THE Red Bluff Independent has been shown some fine specimens of cotton grown in Tehama county. That paper says a large amount of both cotton and tobacco will be raised in that county next season.

General Wright.

In Wednesday's Union we find a letter of Gen. Wright's to Assemblyman Ward. We think the General has put a quietus upon the insinuations wont to be cast upon his patriotism by those intolerant and, as the General justly remarks, "fault-finding politicians." Those gentlemen have never given any substantial proof of their patriotism, hence they must needs talk a good deal about it, lest the country might conclude they were not loyal. General Wright informs them that he "will never stoop to defend his loyalty." We think now, that in the light of General Wright's letter, many "fault-finding politicians," and others, might see themselves reflected in no very enviable shape. Gen. Wright may justly point with pride to the happy condition of our State, and, we trust, the people fully appreciate his services, for we are indebted for that peace more to his ability and sound discretion and judgment than we are to the patriotism or good intentions of too many "fault finding politicians" and their allies.

THE "feet" fever seems to be culminating, and many who have been attacked with it are laid up with pains and aches. But few new mines have been put in working order during the winter, and to pay the assessments now advertised as delinquent will require at least $1,500,000. Meantime, treasure is being shipped out of the State faster than ever. Still there is a fair prospect that next spring and summer the yield from gold and silver mines now being opened will increase sufficient to enable the State to accumulate some treasure.

The continuous dry weather exerts no encouraging influence on the prospects of farmers and placer miners, while the hopes of graziers have gone down below zero. Fruit trees are beginning to put forth their blossoms in the Sacramento and Jan Joaquin valleys.

There appears to be a general feeling of relief and satisfaction over the defeat of the attempt to repeal the Specific Contract Act. Those papers which favored repeal say now it is not wise to further agitate the question.

An active movement appears to be on foot throughout the State among the Fenian Brothers. They are holding meetings in all the principal towns in the State, raising money, organizing, etc.—The Fenian Brotherhood is an organization of men of Irish birth, the object of which is to secure the independence of Ireland.—Bee.

THE residence of James Anthony, (one of the proprietors of the Sacramento Union,) at the north-west corner of 9th and H streets, was entered by burglars on Wednesday night of last week. The family retired at about 11 o'clock in the evening, securing doors as usual. In the morning several of the doors were found to be unlocked, and one of them stood partially open. The rooms of the lower story had been visited, but the research had not extended to the upper story.—The thieves carried off two silver saltcellars, one silver salt spoon, two opera glasses, one silver cup, one large meerschaum pipe, two plated waiters, several articles of clothing, etc., etc., worth in all about $150. On an examination of the premises by the police it was ascertained that an entrance had been effected by means of a pair of "nips," by which the key in the door had been turned from the outside. The marks of the instrument were plainly visible on the key of the side door, and on one or two others which they found it necessary to open.—Sac. Union.

ROCK SHIPPING.—This is a new branch of trade introduced in this section by the Original Williams & Kellinger Mining Company of Pitsburg. A very large supply of sacks arrived on the boat on Monday, and crowds of teams were seen moving out of town on Tuesday and Wednesday, for the purpose of hauling the rock from Pittsburg to Red Bluff for shipment. We hope the company may realize their expectations, and be able to ship about 75 or 100 tons weekly, as that would be a good thing all round. Teaming to the northern counties is very dull at the present time, and the low rates at which freight is shipped will induce other companies to follow the example of the Original Williams & Killenger.—Red Bluff Indep.

CURIOUS DISEASE.—A resident of Susanville, Honey Lake Valley, Plumas county, writes to a friend in Petaluma, describing the appearance there of a new and fearfully fatal disease. The first symptom is a chilly sensation, followed by heavy chills, which end with a high fever, great distress in the head and breast, and finally delirium. In some cases, sharp, darting pains in the head, and dizziness precedes the chills. Some die in a few hours, and some linger a few days. Thus far but one case has recovered. There had been four deaths at Susanville during the week preceding the writing of the letter.—Bee.

"LOOK ON THIS PICTURE."—Brigham Young has just taken a new wife—his sixty-first.

"AND ON THIS."—A white woman in Chicago has entered a suit against a negro for seduction.

AMENDMENT TO THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION.—On the 12th the Judiciary Committee of the Senate reported in favor of the following amendment to the Constitution:

Resolved, By Congress, two-thirds of both Houses concurring, That the following article be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three-quarters of said Legislatures, shall be valid as part of the Constitution:

Article 13th, Sec. 1st.—Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as punishment for crimes, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

Sec. 2nd.—Congress shall have power to enforce this Article by appropriate legislation.

It will require twenty-five of the thirty-four States to ratify the foregoing to make it constitutional. In twenty two the abolitionists have a majority, without counting Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas, or Louisiana, which, it is supposed, will vote for the amendment, thus making the abolition of slavery a constitution act.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM.—The Bee says "We are told that it is the practice of some of the hackmen upon the levee to "sock it" to innocent strangers at a fearful rate in the way of fare. We hear of an instance where one was charged the modest sum of five dollars for conveyance from the boat to a hotel but a few blocks off, and that this is not an uncommon proceeding. If there is no law regulating this matter there should be one enacted at once, if the Trustees have to call a special session for the purpose—It is a shame that the reputation of our city should suffer from this practice."

Sweet's Infallible Liniment.

Is truly a "friend in need," which every family should have at hand. For all external accidents and injuries it will relieve pain more speedily than any preparation in the known world, and its soothing and healing properties are indeed wonderful. It will relieve the worst case of Nervous Headache in five minutes, and never fails.

It will also cure Rheumatism rapidly, and restore the stiffened joints of age to youthful suppleness and vigor. One trial will convince the most skeptical. Prepared from the recipe of Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, and for sale by

THE CORK TREE IN CALIFORNIA.—In the Stockton Independent of the 8th inst. the following, in relation to the cork tree, occurs:

A few years ago, if we recollect aright, acorns of the cork tree, an oak (Quercus suber), were distributed throughout various portions of our country; but what success has attended the planting of those acorns we are not aware. This species of oak is not only a highly ornamental evergreen, but if found adaptable to our soil and climate would prove to be a tree of great use, on account of the value of its bark for all purposes for which cork is needed. As a general thing, the bark does not make cork of a first rate quality before the tree is sixteen or twenty years old. The longevity of the tree is about equal to that of other oaks, and in its habit of growth and general appearance it strikingly resembles the live oak along the seaboard of the Southern States. In speaking of this tree, the Commissioner of Patents, in his report of 1855, says, that "considering in a politic as well as in an economical sense, seasonable measures should be taken to form plantations of this tree, sufficient for the future supply of cork, particularly for the increasing demands for that material which are likely to arise from the culture of the vine. * * * * As a further argument in showing the importance of fostering this branch of rural economy it may be stated, that the amount of cork annually imported into the United States is valued at $284,000. The amount in reality greatly exceeds $300,000.

There are several fine cork trees, comparatively speaking, in this vicinity—one, three or four feet high, was exhibited at the last State Fair. They would probably be more plentiful if the "pet chivs," to whom Senator Gwinn and Phil. Herbert distributed the hermetically sealed tins of acorns, had not, as a general thing (exhibiting their practical knowledge in this as they do in most other mudsill matters,) planted cans and all just as they were received. The crop of plants produced by this mode of agriculture was not plentiful. There may be parts of the State where the cultivation of the cork oak has been even more successful than in Sacramento.

THE following constitute our present naval force in these waters:

In the port of San Francisco: side-wheel steamer Narragansett, 11 guns (large calibre); Shubrick, 5 guns. At Mare Island: steamtug Monitor, 1 gun. At Panama, or cruising along the coast: steam sloop Lancaster, 22 guns, (first class); side wheel steamer Saranac, 9 guns; steamer Saganaw, 3 guns; sloop Cayne, 18 guns; sloop St. Mary's, 22 guns; storeship Warren, 2 guns. The last three, and the Monitor tug, would be of no value whatever except for harbor defense. The following are in pursuit of the Alabama: the fast and powerful steamer Vanderbilt, 8 guns, and the screw sloop Wyoming, 6 guns. On the way here from Fortress Monroe: the new double ender iron-clad gunboat Wateree, 10 guns, (four being 9 inch caliber, two 100 pound rifles, two 24 pounders, and two 20 pound howitzers.) To be dispatched from New York in a few weeks: the mate to the Wateree. At the bottom of the Bay of San Francisco, and not available within six months is the monitor Camanche, 2 guns (13 inch caliber). The monster guns of the Camanche cauld be raised in a few days and mounted upon some of the craft already in the harbor, for port defense, if deemed necessary.

THE FEDERAL ARMY.—There are on the rolls an army of 700,000 United States soldiers, or thereabouts, of which number about 500,000 are actually in the field. The country is paying officers for 1,000,000 soldiers.

ACCORDING to General Halleck, our entire losses during the last year, in killed, wounded and missing were 92,770 men.

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutricious blood, and nutricious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digenstion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices, which dissolve the food, strengthen the animal juices, which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the brokendown frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wanted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthful invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A Word to the Aged.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females.

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances & derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the oppressed mental powers, as well as stregthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

Dr. Guysott's Improved

EXTRACT OF

Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla

Will Cure without Fail

Scrofula or King's Evil, Cancers, Tumors, Eruptions of the skin, Erysipelas, Chronic Sore Eyes, Ringworm or Tetter, Scald Head, Rheumatism, Pains in the Bones and Joints, Old Sores and Ulcers, Salt Rhrum, Diseases of the Kidneys, Loss of Appetite, Disease arising from the use of Mercury, Pain in the Side and Shoulder, General Debility, Dropsy, Jaundice Lumbago, &c.

Dr. Guysott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla put up in the largest sized bottles, contains more of the Honduras Sarsaparilla than any other preparation extant, which is combined with the extract of Yellow Dock, the extract of Wild Cherry and the Balsam of Fir, thus making the remedy more thoroughly efficient that any other Sarsaparilla before the public. At the same time it is perfectly free from ALL mineral poisons, which can not be said of any other of the Sarsaparilla compounds. The Invalid should beware of poisons. Mercury, Iron, Quinine, Potash, Iodine, Sulphur, Arsenic, and many other mineral and metalic poisons enter into and form the active basis of most of the sarsaparilla and panaceas of the day. Guysott's Compound Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla does not contain a particle of the substances; as any one can ascertain by applying the necessary tests.

These poisons may occasionally remove disease, but they so vitiate the blood and impregnate the whole system with their baneful effects, that the first cold or the first attack of disease, prostrates the patient's strength and subjects him or her to the most excrutiating torture, and renders another cure almost impossible and hopeless. Let all poisonous sarsaparilla preparations alone, and use Guysott's Improved Extract af Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, which is thoroughly efficacious, perfectly harmless and purely vegetable. All kinds of diseases yield to its genial influence.

Caution.—Beware of counterfeits. All genuine Dr. Guysott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla has the name of JOHN D. PARK, Present Proprietor, Cincinnati, O., on the label.

Remember this fact when buying, all without the name of "JOHN D. PARK, Cincinnati, Ohio," on the label are counterfeit.

THE

Knight's Landing News.

HOW SAL "DISGRACED THE FAMILY." A traveler in the State of Illinois, some years aso, came to a lone log hut on the prairie, near Cairo, and there halted. He went into the house. It was a wretched affair; an empty packing box for a table, while two or three chairs and disagreeable stools graced the reception room, the dark walls of which were further ornamented by a display of tinware and a broken shelf article or two. The woman was crying in one corner, and the man, with tears in his eyes and a pipe in his mouth, on a stool, with his sorrowful looking head supported by the palms of his hand. Not a word greeted the interloper.

"Well," he said, "you seem to be in awful trouble here. What's up?"

"Ah, we are almost crazed neighbor," said the woman, "and we aint got no patience to see folks now."

"That's all right," said the stranger, not much taken back by the polite rebuff, "but can I be of any service to you in all this trouble?"

"Well, we've lost our gal; our Sal's gone off and left us," said the old man, in tones of deep despair.

"Ah, do you know what induced her to leave you?" remarked the new arrival.

"Well, we can't say, neighbor, as how she's so far lost as to be induced, but then she's gone and disgraced us," remarked the affiicted father.

"Yes, stranger, and—not that I should say it as is her mother—but thar warn't a pootier gal in oil the West than our Sal. She's gone and brought ruin on her own head now," followed the stricken mother.

"Who has she gone off with?" inquired the visitor.

"Well, there's the trouble. The gal could have done well, and might have married Mr. Martin Kehoe, a capital shoemaker, who, although he has but one eye, plays the flute in a lively manner, and earns a good living. Then, look, what a life she has deserted; she was here surrounded by all the luxury in the country," said the father.

"Yes, who knows what poor Sal will have to eat, drink, and wear now?" groaned the old woman.

"And who is the fellow that has taken her into such misery?"

"Why, she's gone off and got married to a critter called an editor, as lives in the village, and the Lord only knows how he's to airn a living."

LICK HOUSE,

ALSTROM & CO.—The undersigned, formerly proprietors of the Oriental Hotel, respectfully inform the public that they have purchased the Lease and Furniture of the Lick House. Our friends and the public can rest assured that we shall leave nothing undone to merit their patronage.

It is conceded that the Lick House, has far superior advantages over all other hotels in California.

The house being but three stores high, the rooms are easy of accsss, well lighted, and contain all the modern improvements; the staircase and halls are wide, spacious and airy.

The Kitchen and Pantry are being enlarged, and we are certain of being able to give complete satisfaction in the Dining-hall department.

The Office will be under the superintendence of Mr. FRANK J. LAWLOR, late of the St. Nicholas, New York.

PATENT COMBINED GANG PLOW, SEED SOWER AND HARROW.

We have purchased the right this great labor-saving implement for the State of California.

With this combined Machine one man, with six horses, can do the work of three twelve inch plows, besides sowing the grain, and harrowing it in as he proceeds, thus finishing his work in the best manner possible, without being obliged to travel over the plowed ground. This Machine has been very thoroughly tested. It is made very substantial; is not liable to get out of order, and being on large truck wheels, the Gang Plow, Seed Sower and Harrow, runs lighter than three plows would, cutting the same amount of land.

We are desirous of having these plows generally introduced throughout the State, and are therefore prepared to offer very favorable inducements to farmers and the trade.
